≡ THE MINISTRY OF CULTURE OF THE CZECH REPUBLIC

The Ministry of Culture of the Czech Republic is the central authority of public administration for the area of arts, cultural education and national heritage. Among those other functions, it also administers libraries. Since its creation it has supported Czech culture abroad; shielding Czech culture and its representation in the frame of book fairs worldwide is an inseparable part of this conceptual support.

☰ THE MORAVIAN LIBRARY

The Moravian Library is one of the forefront memory institutions in the Czech Republic. Its creation dates back to the beginning of the nineteenth century. It fulfils the basic functions of a library, conducts scientific research and representative tasks as well. It has also been assigned to represent the Czech book culture at foreign book fairs by its founder – the Ministry of Culture of the Czech Republic.

≡ CZECH LITERARY CENTRE

Czech Literary Centre is a state-funded organisation supporting and promoting Czech literature abroad and in the Czech Republic. The centre is a section of the Moravian Library. The Centre promotes prose, literature for children and young adults, poetry, drama, comics, non-fiction and new forms of literature; acts as an information hub for foreign publishers, translators, Czech studies specialists, event organisers and others interested in Czech literature; provides grants for authors to attend cultural events abroad; organises residencies for foreign translators, Czech studies specialists and authors; is involved in the presentation of Czech literature at book fairs abroad in cooperation with its parent institution.
